

Leeds Museums & Galleries Summer 2025 events

Abbey House Museum

Stories in the Streets

23 July – 31 August

Stories from our Story Time exhibition have spilled out into the Victorian Streets!

You can find Mrs Tiggywinkle doing her washing, the Hungry Caterpillar munching his way through the grocer's shop and seagulls eating the Lighthouse Keeper's lunch.

Come along to spot the stories plus a range of trails and crafts to join in for the whole family to work together.

Drop-in during normal opening hours.

Don't forget to check out our Story Time exhibition while you're here, all about children's books through the ages!

Kirkstall Abbey

Birds, Bees & Butterflies

23 July – 31 August

Search Kirkstall Abbey for animals that live here this summer!

Explore the abbey ruins looking for animals that live in the abbey, including birds, bees and butterflies made from a variety of materials and colours.

Looks for the signs of summer around you.

Subject to opening hours.

Arty in the Abbey

5, 12, 19, 26 August, 10 – 11.30am

Explore our abbey ruins and get arty! Throughout August we're inviting families to try a new art activity whilst discovering Kirkstall Abbey.

Tuesday mornings in August are all about art. Each week we'll be trying a new material or technique to connect with the Abbey.

Choose your paper, choose your materials and get creative!

Link: <https://museumsandgalleries.leeds.gov.uk/whats-on/262//arty-in-the-abbey>

Urban Nature: Building in LEGO

6, 13, 20, 27 August, 10 – 11.30am

Test your creativity! What would Kirkstall Abbey look like if we left nature to it? Let nature take over in this lego workshop.

Give the abbey back to nature.

Every Wednesday morning in August we'll be thinking about the nature around Kirkstall Abbey, and what it might look like if we left mother nature to it.

Combine your creativity and love for nature this summer.

Drop in - no booking required.

Crafty in the Cloister

7, 14, 21, 28 August, 2 – 4pm

Join us for craft activities in the heart of the Abbey - the cloister, the central court of Kirkstall Abbey.

Every Thursday afternoon we'll be inspired by new craft and colouring activities, reflecting on the nature in the abbey.

The Cloister is the central courtyard in the abbey that served as a quiet area, surrounded by covered walkways to minimise noise and disruption. A quiet and meditative space for the Cistercian monks.

Link: <https://museumsandgalleries.leeds.gov.uk/whats-on/264//crafty-in-the-cloister>

Theatre in the Abbey

Various dates and Times

This summer, we have a range of exciting film and theatre performances to enjoy in the atmospheric surroundings of Kirkstall Abbey, from quirky takes on Shakespeare to Harry Potter and fun family pantomimes. Come along and try something new. See our website for full details.

Link: <https://museumsandgalleries.leeds.gov.uk/pQ0KmTM/kirkstall-abbey/what-s-on>

Kirkstall Abbey Markets

30 & 31 August, from 11am

Come along to browse a range of local producers and makers at our regular Kirkstall Abbey Markets.

Set in the beautiful surroundings of Kirkstall Abbey ruins, the weekend markets are a great way to shop locally. Take in the delicious smells and tastes of Yorkshire-made produce including cheeses & chutneys, and sweet & savoury bakes. Stop for lunch at one of the street food stalls and enjoy a drink in the cloister ruins of the abbey.

There are also a range of art and craft stalls from local makers and creatives, showcasing handmade items including homewares, accessories and natural beauty products. Support Yorkshire-owned businesses and enjoy a day out at one of the best-preserved Cistercian monasteries in the country.

This is a Give What You Can event. We don't want price to be a barrier to a great experience. On entry, simply pick the price you can give and enjoy your visit.

Leeds Art Gallery

Who's There?

2, 7, 9 & 14 August, 11am – 3pm

Creative family fun with artist Sarah Jane Mason.

What do you know about how artists approach their work? Where do their ideas come from and how do they pull inspiration from the things around them?

Come along to this fun session to explore what painter Lynette Yiadom-Boakye uses to create her mysterious imagined characters. Experiment with making portraits of your own, find out where the process leads you and see who appears!

This creative art workshop is inspired by our exhibition To Improvise a Mountain: Lynette Yiadom-Boakye Curates.

Drop-in, no need to book.

Leeds Art Gallery is a Give What You Can venue. We don't want price to be a barrier to a great experience. Simply pick the price you can give when you arrive at the gallery, and enjoy your visit.

Pattern Making Poetry

19, 20, 21 August, 11am – 3pm

Creative family fun session with artist Kalisha Piper Cheddie

We're inviting families to join us and be inspired by poetry and music this summer. Use drawing and collage to make patterns on long pieces of paper that will be hung on the large walls in Central Court on the first floor of the gallery, to change it's atmosphere in new and interesting ways.

While you're here, take some time to find out more about Lynette Yiadom-Boakye's favourite music and poetry that inspired her exhibition, To Improvise a Mountain: Lynette Yiadom-Boakye Curates.

Drop-in, no need to book.

Breadcrumbs with Wrongsemble Theatre

29 July, 12pm & 2pm

Hansel and Gretel are siblings that just can't seem to get along. They argue about everything: Who's the loudest, who's the fastest, who's the smartest, who's Mum's favourite, and who gets the most Christmas presents?!

So when they wake up lost and confused in the heart of the enchanted forest one day, it's no surprise they even disagree about how they came to be there! But with only a trail of breadcrumbs to guide them home, they'll have to put aside their differences once and for all to solve the mystery of how they got there and make it home in time for tea!

This brand new family show packed full of music, magic and puppetry from Wrongsemble celebrates how even the simplest story can become the wildest fairytale in the hands of the right storyteller!

Tickets: <https://my.leedstickethub.co.uk/overview/29879>

LEGO® Build the Change: Rewild our Museum!

5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, 21, 26, 27 & 28 August, 10.30am – 12pm & 12.30 – 2pm

Use LEGO® bricks to design how we can make the museum grounds better for us and our environment.

We're taking back our museum grounds and we need your help! Bring your family to Leeds Industrial Museum during the summer holidays and get creative using LEGO® bricks to design how we can make our grounds better for us and our environment.

Maybe you'll design a bin that recycles litter instantly and turns it into energy to power our train collection? Or create a riverside palace to encourage otters to build their homes? Perhaps you'll encourage bees by building a wildflower meadow on our roof? The more weird and wild ideas the better, it's up to you to Build the Change! Build the Change is supported by the LEGO Foundation.

Drop-in, included in museum admission.

Pot a Plant

30 July, 1 – 3pm

Head to the Walled Garden, where our friendly team will help you to pot up a stunning Coleus plant from our national collection to take home!

Coleus are known for their striking, multicoloured foliage, and can thrive in both sun and shade, making them a versatile choice for any growing space.

The leaves showcase intricate designs in deep reds, purples, golds and shades of green. So, whether you're brightening up a windowsill, or adding charm to a corner of your garden, adding a Coleus plant is a low-maintenance way to bring nature to your home.

£3 per plant. Booking essential.

Bat Walk

2 August, 9 – 10pm

Join us for a family friendly walk to detect bats on the estate.

Meet in the courtyard for tea and biscuits. There is a 1/2 hour natural history slide talk followed by a quiz and some videos. After an introduction to the use of Bat detectors there is a guided walk approximately 2 miles in length.

The route is reasonably accessible mostly on tarmac paths. A variety of roosting and feeding habitats are covered. In the past about five species of bat have been encountered engaged in a variety of natural behaviour.

The walk will finish back at the house at about 10pm but families with very young children may want to make this shorter.

£10. Booking essential.
